

TEND THE WORLD YOUTH FORUM

THE GLOBAL LINK BETWEEN THE ENVIRONMENT AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8th - 8:30AM-3PM
PORTLAND STATE UNIVERSITY · SMITH MEMORIAL STUDENT UNION

Youth leaders will kick off the morning with workshops, and will share their inspiring climate change action projects! Highlights of the day:

- Hands-on workshops
- Action fair showcasing local organizations
- Peer and advisor networking
- Take-home resources for your school

Learning topics include:

- School garden education
- The status of climate refugees
- The future of forests
- United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals
- Environmental stewardship
- Community organizing and more!

$125.00 FOR 10 HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS PLUS 2 CHAPERONES

Questions? Contact samara@worldoregon.org

worldoregon.org/YOUTHFORUM2017

Fee includes all workshops, lunch, plus copy of A People's Curriculum for the Earth

KELSEY JULIANA, YOUTH ACTIVIST, OUR CHILDREN'S TRUST,
IMATTER, 350.ORG &
EARTH GUARDIANS

FEATURED SPEAKER

"So often, the communities we see struggling with environmental disasters are also those suffering from social disenfranchisement."

JACOB LEBEL, YOUTH ACTIVIST, REPORTER, ENVIRONMENTAL & CLIMATE CHANGE ISSUES

FEATURED SPEAKER

"In a very real way, climate change is now a human rights and a constitutional issue. That's why youth around the world are rising up in the streets and in the courts to protect their future."

